Principles of Recovery

Back in the late 1980's a woman came to a Step and Tradition meeting in Texas stating that there were 12 principles of AA and had a card stating so. I wrote G.S.O. in N.Y. and asked them where that came from. The reply from G.S.O. was that someone in Beaumont TX had come up with a principle associated with each Step and then the Houston Intergroup had made copies to give out. You can also sometimes see these 12 principles hanging on the walls of AA groups. I told G.S.O. that, unless I was mistaken, I thought that the principles of AA are the Steps as so plainly put in the 12th Step. G.S.O. told me that the Steps ARE the principles of AA. (Inez from Tx.)

Awakening to Principles

(from http://www.sober.org/Principles.html)

Most A.A. groups read the first 77 lines of Big Book chapter 5, How It Works, at the beginning of their meetings. While reading the 12 Steps one encounters...

12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs. [Big Book, page 60, line 3]
Some of us have asked, "What are these principles?" Anticipating this to be anything but a trivial question, we searched the book for the word principle. It must be important to the program of recovery because it is used 36 times. Appendix II (below) displays all 36 references.

Definition of Principle. Thus aroused, we then explored. The next thing we did was to investigate the definition of principle in our dictionary. Definitions herein were extracted from Webster’s New International Dictionary, Second Edition, published in 1935. It should be a reliable source for word usage as understood over 50 years ago by the authors of the Big Book, Alcoholics Anonymous, which was first published in April, 1939.

The dictionary on PRINCIPLE

Principle, n [fr ...Latin principium beginning, foundation...]

2. A source, or origin; that from which anything proceeds; fundamental substance or energy; primordial; ultimate basis or cause...

4. A fundamental truth; a comprehensive law or doctrine from which others are derived, or on which others are founded; a general truth; an elementary proposition or fundamental assumption; a maxim; an axiom; a postulate.

5. A settled rule of action; a governing law of conduct; an opinion, attitude or belief which exercises a directing influence on the life and behavior; a rule (usually a right rule) of conduct consistently directing one's actions...

One might distill these definitions of principle down to basic rules of action. However, some of our members are opposed to rules, so we adopted the following short definition:

a principle is a basic action guideline:

Searching the Big Book on the word "Principle". What are the principles of the A.A. program of recovery? Five of the 36 uses of the word principle are clearly statements of principles: (Numbers 1 through 36 below refer to the order in which the statement appears in the Big Book)

22) The first principle of success is that you should never be angry. [Big Book, page 111, line 1] (Although we alcoholics are not saints, it seem the authors of the Big Book thought that our spouses should be. It is obvious that this principle is AVOID anger.) 28) Another principle we observe carefully is that we do not relate intimate experiences of another person unless we are sure he would approve. [Big Book, page 125, line 18] (This principle is that we respect the privacy of others, especially fellow members of AA.) 29) Giving, rather than getting, will become the guiding principle. [Big Book, page 128, line 2] (We practice service of others rather than self-service.) 35) & 36) "There is a principle which is a bar against all information, which is proof against all arguments and which cannot fail to keep a man in everlasting ignorance—that principle is contempt prior to investigation." -HERBERT SPENCER [Big Book, Appendix II, page 570, lines 16 & 19] (The principle for us is open-mindedness.)

These are the five easy ones. Another of our 36 examples below contains three principles:

25) Your new courage, good nature and lack of self-consciousness will do wonders for you socially. The same principle applies in dealing with the children. [Big Book, page 115, line 20] (Our relationships with others will be vastly improved when we display courage and good nature, just as when we do not display self-consciousness.)

Five additional examples make direct reference to the steps and traditions of A.A. as being principles:

The STEPS of A.A. are principles (and a listing of these appears soon):

9) 12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs. [Big Book, page 60, line 3]

10) No one among us has been able to maintain anything like perfect adherence to these principles. [Big Book, page 60, line 8]

11) The principles we have set down are guides to progress. We claim spiritual progress rather than spiritual perfection. [Big Book, page 60, line 9]

The TRADITIONS of A.A. are principles:

1 & 2) As we discovered the principles by which the individual alcoholic could live, so we had to evolve principles by which the A.A. groups and A.A. as a whole could survive and function effectively. [Big Book, page xix, lines 8 & 9]

3) Though none of these principles had the force of rules or laws, they had become so widely accepted by 1950 that they were confirmed by our first International Conference held at Cleveland. [Big Book, page xix, line 27]

Thus far we may have uncovered 31 of A.A.’s principles. Four were the easy uses of the word principle in examples 22), 28), 29, and 36). Three more were found in 25), and there are 12 Steps and 12 Traditions, each being a principle.

Principles of the 12 Steps:

STEP: (The Steps are printed on pages 59 & 60 of the Big Book.)
1. Surrender. (Give in to hopelessness.)
2. Hope. (Step 2 is the mirror image or opposite of Step 1. In Step 1 we admit that alcohol is our higher power, and that our lives are unmanageable. In Step 2, we find a different Higher Power who we hope will bring about a return to sanity in management of our lives.)
3. Commitment. (The key word in Step 3 is decision.)
4. Honesty. (An inventory of self.)
5. Truth. (Candid confession to God and another human being.)
6. Willingness. (Choosing to abandon defects of character.)
7. Humility. (Standing naked before God, with nothing to hide, and asking that our flaws-in His eyes-be removed.)
8. Reflection. (Who have we harmed? Are we ready to amend?)
9. Amendment. (Making direct amends/restitution/correction, etc.)
10. Vigilance. (Exercising self-discovery, honesty, abandonment, humility, reflection and amendment on a moment-by-moment, daily, and periodic basis.)
11. Attunement. (Becoming as one with our Creator.)
12. Service. (Awakening into sober usefulness.)

You may have good reason to believe the above distillation could be improved upon. Please do so! The purpose of this activity is to sharpen up our thinking about the nature of A.A. recovery. Honest inquiry and loving debate are essential to deep learning.

Principles of the TRADITIONS; perhaps you should take a shot at these if you wish. Let us know what you come up with.

And Down to Business. Now for the fun. We have uncovered 36 instances of the word principle in the Big Book. From these we have discovered 31 principles of A.A. recovery. You may have noticed that in eight instances we are talking specifically about "spiritual principles".

But, the "principles" addressed thus far are but a few of the principles that should guide our lives. For example: Patience, tolerance, understanding and love are the watchwords. [Big Book, page 118 line 13]

You are going to have an exciting time identifying A.A.'s principles. It is suggested that you and some friends start with the first printed page in the Big Book, and that you each read a paragraph while the others ask themselves if the paragraph contains any basic action guidelines for recovery from alcoholism. If so, write them down. You may wish to use the following list (Appendix I) to get started:
